I am a passionate and creative individual who hopes to build a career in media after graduating. Additionally, I am an avid reader with a strong interest in politics and current affairs.

ACADEMIC PROJECTS/PORTFOLIO PIECES

The Grind: NAB Gets Me

For the 2024 Advertising Capstone Challenge, advertising and marketing students across Australia and New Zealand were tasked with solving a real-world business problem presented by the Australian bank NAB. The problem is that Gen Z's awareness of NAB has fallen off. Our solution is to become the number one cheerleader for Gen Z entrepreneurs from inspiration to manifestation. This campaign was awarded Highly Commended Integrated Campaign, the second top prize at the awards.

Lego Masters: Mini Masters

For the 2025 AXIS Student Challenge, we were asked to select a national or global brand that is currently a client of a New Zealand ad agency and devise an idea that employs any new or emerging technology from the past three years to express our chosen brand's purpose innovatively. The result: Mini Masters, an idea for Lego Masters to use generative AI to help turn children's drawings into real-life Lego figures. Mini Masters is now one of three 2025 AXIS Student Challenge finalists.
